LAFFERTY LOSES MATCH.

Chevy Chase Player Put Out of First Division at Golf.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 9 .- There were two keen contests this afternoon in the second round of match play in the annual golf tournament of the Atlantic City Country Club. Aden Robbins and James G. Batterson, the New Yorkers, finally wen, but by only 1 up, defeating Hugo Johnstone, the Boston crack, and G. C. Lafferty, the well-known Chevy Chase

Club player, of Washington, respectively. Robbins went out in 40, two below bogie as he did in the morning, making the best nine holes so far in the tournament He was 3 up at the turn, but from that point fell back, having the last three holes. His medal total was 83. Batterson started strongly and was 3 up going to the sixth hole, but the match was squared on the twelfth, and again on the sixteenth hole. Then he won the seventeenth, and halved the home hole.

As in the case of Robbins, everything hung on a single putt. W. E. Shackelford, the local star, won from A. W. Tillinghast, of Philadelphia, by his extraordinary putting. H. G. Legg, the Lawrence ville Preparatory School boy, had a walkover, 5 up and 4 to go, from H. W. Brown, the Vermont veteran In the second set Oden Hortsman, of Philadelphia, lost to J. E. Smith, of Wilmington, by generally sloppy play. In the balance of that division, W. B. Adamson, Philadelphia, beat G. E. Morse, Rutland, Vt., 4 and 2; Herman Wendell, Wayne, Pa., beat H. S. Meacham, Philadelphia, 4 and 3, and G. L. Cuttler, Philadelphia, beat Frank Sears, New York, 3 in the third set, George Craig, Dela-Philadelphia, 2 up; George Dunn, Lawohia, 2 up; Harry Mackey, Philadelphia W. W. Cooldham, Toledo, Ohio, beat E. S.
